		 Verify you know your current CM/ECF username/login and password (for District Court and Bankruptcy Court). If you do not know them, you will need to take steps to retrieve them. Your username/login is most likely your Idaho Bar number. For out of state attorneys, it is your bar number with included State initials, i.e. CA1010101, NY1010101, etc.).
		 Your password can be retrieved, but in order to do that, you will need to have the email address associated with CM/ECF up to date, as this is where your password reset link will go. If you no longer have access to the email address originally associated with your CM/ECF account you may submit an email update request by emailing ForgottenECF@id.uscourts.gov . Include in the email your new email address, and we will update your ECF account. Once you have been notified that your email has been updated, you may then proceed with the password rest request. To reset your password in CM/ECF please visit the login screens for each court. https://id.uscourts.gov/clerks/Welcome.cfm District ECF Login Click on the appropriate ECF login button.
